As the Litigation Paralegal at Mika Meyers, my experience is mostly centered in family, criminal, and estate law, but I consider myself well-versed in all aspects of the art of litigation—and I do consider it an art. Since 2013, I've honed my skills of resolving disputes in the most creative and intelligent ways possible, with a great level of pride and respect for the craft.

Outside of work, I am a proud member of the Sault Saint Marie Band of Chippewa. I also visit the Upper Peninsula quite often with my family whom I love spending time with.
