My job is all about people, and I never forget that. I appreciate every opportunity to provide a purpose-driven approach to problem-solving, confront complicated problems head-on, and find a solution rooted in what's most important for my clients.

When I'm not working, I enjoy traveling and spending time with my family. I am also involved in the community, having served on boards for Junior Achievement, Justice for our Neighbors, and Wayne State University Law School.

PUBLICATIONS

I wrote a chapter for the publication Inside the Minds in 2010. The book provides readers with business intelligence from C-Level executives and lawyers (chairman, CEO, CFO, CMO, Partner) from the world's most respected companies and firms nationwide. My chapter was called "Strategic Client Response to Worksite Investigations." The chapter provides an authoritative, insider's perspective on the reasons and laws behind the government's focus on workplace investigations and how to best prepare clients.

PAST EMPLOYMENT POSITIONS

Chief Judge Lawrence P. Zatkoff, United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, Law Clerk, 1997 – 1999
