My legal practice is diverse, ranging from family law to estate planning. As a mom of two, I understand the challenges that my family law clients face, and I will be everything from a legal advocate to a sympathetic ear. I also find that my role as a wife and as a daughter of older parents allows me to relate on a personal level to a number of issues that estate planning clients confront, and I am a passionate fighter for my clients when I need to be in the courtroom.

When I'm not working, you will usually find me spending time with my children and husband. I am an avid reader, intrepid explorer of new realms, plant mama, interior design aficionado (the more color, the better!), and a slow but steady hiker.
