As a former Assistant Attorney General for Michigan, judicial law clerk, and Eagle Scout, service is in my DNA. That is why I am grateful for every opportunity to provide value-added service to my clients. Whether I am advising a local government body, negotiating a contract, facilitating a real estate transaction, or litigating a case in court, I am dedicated to delivering sound advice and strategic guidance to my clients rooted in their goals and objectives.

When I am not working, you will usually find me hanging out with my wife and two young kids. I enjoy hiking, cycling, camping, kayaking, skiing and board games (both with friends and family). I also enjoy the time I am able to devote to community service having served on the boards for Catholic Charities West Michigan, the Grand Rapids Bar Association and the local chapter of the Federalist Society.
